Salmon-Neskowin Watershed Analysis
Map 10: Potential Key Fish Habitat
Source: SNF GIS theme SN_STR, digital elevation model, and aerial photo interpretation
Potential Key Habitat
Potential Key habitat is defined as stream segments with unconfined or moderately confined banks, and gradients below four percent.
Pacific Ocean
Butte-Hawk
Lower Neskowin
Upper Neskowin
Widow
Upper Salmon R.
Trail-Alderbrook
Salmon
Beer
Cliff
Panther 1
Slickrock 2
Lower Salmon R.
Trout 1
Middle Salmon R.
Bear 2
T05S
T06S
T07S
R09W
R10W
R11W
KILOMETERS
0 0.5 1 1.5 2
MILES
0 0.5 1 1.5 2
Salmon-Neskowin Watershed Analysis boundary
Subwatershed boundary
Section line (approximate)
Stream
Primary road
Other road
Federal ownership boundary
Non-Federal ownership
Middle Fork Geographic Information Services
N
E
S
W