Governor's SOLV Cup Award

Roseburg, Ore. – The Roseburg District of the Bureau of Land Management (BLM) received a SOLV Cup award today for Best Development of Partnerships from Governor Kitzhaber presented on the Oregon Capitol front steps in Salem.

Joe Ross received the award accompanied by Field Manager Dwight Fielder and District Manager Cary Osterhaus for Partnership efforts on National public Lands Day held September 23, 2000. Nine volunteer projects were completed across Douglas County that developed partnerships among agencies, special interest groups and service organizations.

Five awards are to be given today: Oregon State Police/Fish and Wildlife Division for Best Project Organized by a Government Agency; Illinois Valley Community Response Team for Best Project in a Rural or Natural Area; Lebannon Middle School for Best Project Involving youth; and Bureau of Land Management, Roseburg District for Best Development of Partnerships.
