New Campgrounds ready for Reservations

Roseburg, Ore. - The Roseburg District Bureau of Land Management is putting the finishing touches on two new group reservation campgrounds, Lone Pine and Eagleview, opening May 2004.

The new Eagleview Group Campground is located one mile downstream from the Tye Recreation Site, on the banks of the North Umpqua River. Facilities include: ten campsites; a pavilion with picnic tables; double vault toilets; potable water; campfire circles with picnic tables; a group BBQ grill; a pathway along the river bank with access to the river; and an open area for extra parking or open space activities. All campsites, the pavilion, vault toilets and most pathways are wheelchair accessible. A fee of $110.00 per day will be charged. The new site holds 100 campers with an additional 100 people for day-use only activities or events. The site will officially open May 21, 2004.

The new Lone Pine Group Campground is located five miles up Rock Creek Road, across from the Millpond Recreation Site. Facilities include: 11 campsites and several expanded tent sites; vault toilets; potable water; campfire circles and picnic tables; an open area picnic site with 16' table; a group BBQ grill; and a grassy volleyball court. The Millpond pavilion and ball field may be reserved for an additional fee. A fee of $90.00 per day will be charged for campground use only; $120.00 for use of the campground and half of the Millpond pavilion and ball field; and $140.00 for the campground and the entire pavilion and ball field. The new site holds 100 campers with an additional 100 people for day-use at Millpond pavilion/ball field facilities. All toilets and 9 campsites are wheelchair accessible. The site will open May 7, 2004.

Currently, BLM's other five campgrounds are operated on a first-come, first-serve basis but reservations for the new group sites can be made up to a year in advance. "Requests for large capacity sites have been made by a variety of groups wanting an area for family reunions, weddings, company parties, and club or religious outings. The two new sites meet that need and in addition serve as overflow campgrounds when not reserved" says Gregg Morgan, Roseburg BLM Recreation Planner. A $100.00 refundable cleaning and compliance deposit is required and a host will be on site for public assistance at both new sites.

For further information contact Gregg Morgan on 541 464-3291, or Ron Murphy on 541 464-3265. To make a reservation, contact the Roseburg BLM on weekdays between the hours of 8 a.m. and 4:30 p.m. on 541 440-4930.
